Payroll Management Services FAQs

What does managed payroll services mean and how is it different from self-service payroll?

Managed payroll services means our team handles all aspects of payroll processing for you, including calculations, tax filings, benefits, and compliance. Self-service payroll requires your team to input, calculate, and manage payroll data manually. Managed payroll reduces errors, saves time, and ensures compliance.

Can you pay my employees' salaries and taxes on my behalf?

Absolutely. We can handle payroll disbursements, employee salaries, and all related tax remittances directly, ensuring compliance and on-time payments.

What are the steps of the implementation process?

- Onboarding: Collect employee data, contracts, and benefits information.
- Setup: Configure payroll rules, tax calculations, and compliance settings.
- Go-Live: Start live payroll processing.
- Ongoing Support: Provide assistance, reporting, and compliance updates.

How much do your payroll services cost?

Costs vary depending on your company size, number of employees, and specific payroll requirements. Contact us for a personalized quote tailored to your business.

How do your payroll management solutions ensure compliance with Canadian tax laws?

Our team stays up-to-date with federal and provincial tax regulations, handles accurate deductions, submits filings on time, and provides detailed reporting to ensure full compliance.

Can your platform handle payroll for employees across multiple provinces in Canada?

Yes. Our system supports employees in all Canadian provinces, calculating the correct taxes, benefits, and deductions based on local regulations.

How secure is my employees’ payroll data on your system?

We use advanced encryption, secure cloud storage, and strict access controls to protect sensitive payroll and employee data. Security is a top priority.

How long does it take to implement your payroll management solution?

Implementation typically takes 2–4 weeks depending on the size of your team, complexity of payroll, and integration needs.

How do you handle payroll for contractors or freelancers?

We can manage payments, track work hours, and ensure proper tax reporting for contractors and freelancers, keeping everything compliant and accurate.

Is your payroll solution scalable as my company grows?

Yes. Our solutions adapt to businesses of any size (from small teams to multi-location operations) so your payroll processes grow seamlessly with your company.
